THE GREATEST PRIZE FIGHT IN HISTORY

TUNNEY WINS THE DECISION OVER ADVERSARY DEMPSEY

Greatest Crowd In the History of the Ring Present at Soldiers Field, Chicago, Thursday—Over 150,000 Present—Gate Receipts Nearly $3,000,000—Champion Was Nearly Knocked Out In Seventh Round, but Finishes Strong, Dempsey Is Groggy.

Gene Tunney, the man of destiny is still heavyweight champion of the world, but his crown was perilously close to being toppled from his head Thursday night at Soldiers Field, Chicago, by the gallant thrust of the old warrior, Jack Dempsey, in the greatest boxing spectacle of all time. Tunney's hand was raised in victory at the end of a slashing, smashing battle but only because he had the courage and fighting power for a sensational finish after being knocked down for a count of nine in the seventh round by Dempsey's vicious two-handed attack.

GENE TUNNEY

had ever recorded, but Tunney, back on his feet, slipped from range, cleared his head and weathered as stormy a session as he ever has experienced. Safely past this crisis, Tunney finished the last three rounds like a champion, regaining confidence, taking the aggressive and beating Dempsey into defeat with a two-handed, well-timed attack to the head. With his title in danger, Tunney had the stuff to put on a victorious rally. At the close of the final round Dempsey both eyes cut and badly bleeding, was groggy and reeling, "but on his feet."

So battered was the old champion, his last charge expended, that he did not seem to know the battle was over and had to be led to his corner.

Tunney's victory was not without its disputes, however, for there were

JACK DEMPSEY

The Vanquished.

scores in the ringside section who thought the champion was saved from losing his crown in the seventh round by a count that was actually several seconds longer than the toll of nine.

It was unquestionably a "long count"—from 12 to 14 seconds in all, to take the varying counts of ringside observers—but its explanation lay in the fact that Illinois boxing rules compelled the fighter scoring knockdown to go to his corner before the count starts. The time elapsing Dempsey's backing off to a corner accounted for the late start of the count, boxing commissioner explained.

Tunney took the count with his left hand holding the ropes. He was groggy and in bad shape, but fully conscious of the count. Had it started sooner, he probably would have been able to regain his feet, but he might have been wobblier and an easier target. As it was, he had the advantage of the few seconds added rest, a chance to collect his faculties and ward off Dempsey's attack.

The mightiest throng in fight or sporting history estimated at 150,000, paid the record-smashing sum of $2,800,000 to see the handsome ex-marine weather the spectacular challenge of the old mauler and to defeat as convincingly, if not as decisively, the man from whom Gene took the crown a year ago in the rain at Philadelphia.

Victory unquestionably went to the better man, the craftier boxer, the faster and stronger fighter, but was his only after the closest call he ever had.

The drama of Tunney's title defense, stirring as was his decisive finish, was enacted principally in the seventh round. For it was here that the flashing old fighting spirit of Dempsey, making his greatest bid, came so close to accomplishing the unprecedented.

Thru the first half of the battle Tunney had boxed coolly and cautiously, shooting only when he saw his target and shooting accurately, while Dempsey always going in, found him self brought up time after time by jolting rights to the head or smart left jabs.

Once or twice Jack had lashed out with smashing body blows that hurt the champion but there was little warning of what was impending when the former champion suddenly launched a vicious drive to the head in the seventh round. Perhaps Tunney was off guard, for his foe had aimed his attack previously at the body. But at any rate Dempsey connected solidly with a series of staggering smashes.

A right hand to the jaw sent Tunney back to the ropes, sagging at the knees. He was on his way down when a left hook clipped him and completed the job.

Halts Liner at Sea to Mail His Report

New York.—The skipper of the Nantucket shoals lightship believes in being punctual, even if he has to commandeer a 700-foot ocean liner to help him out. When the White Star liner Baltic arrived the other day, Capt. F. F. Summers told of receiving a wireless message while at sea from the lighthouse keeper asking him to stop by for an important letter.

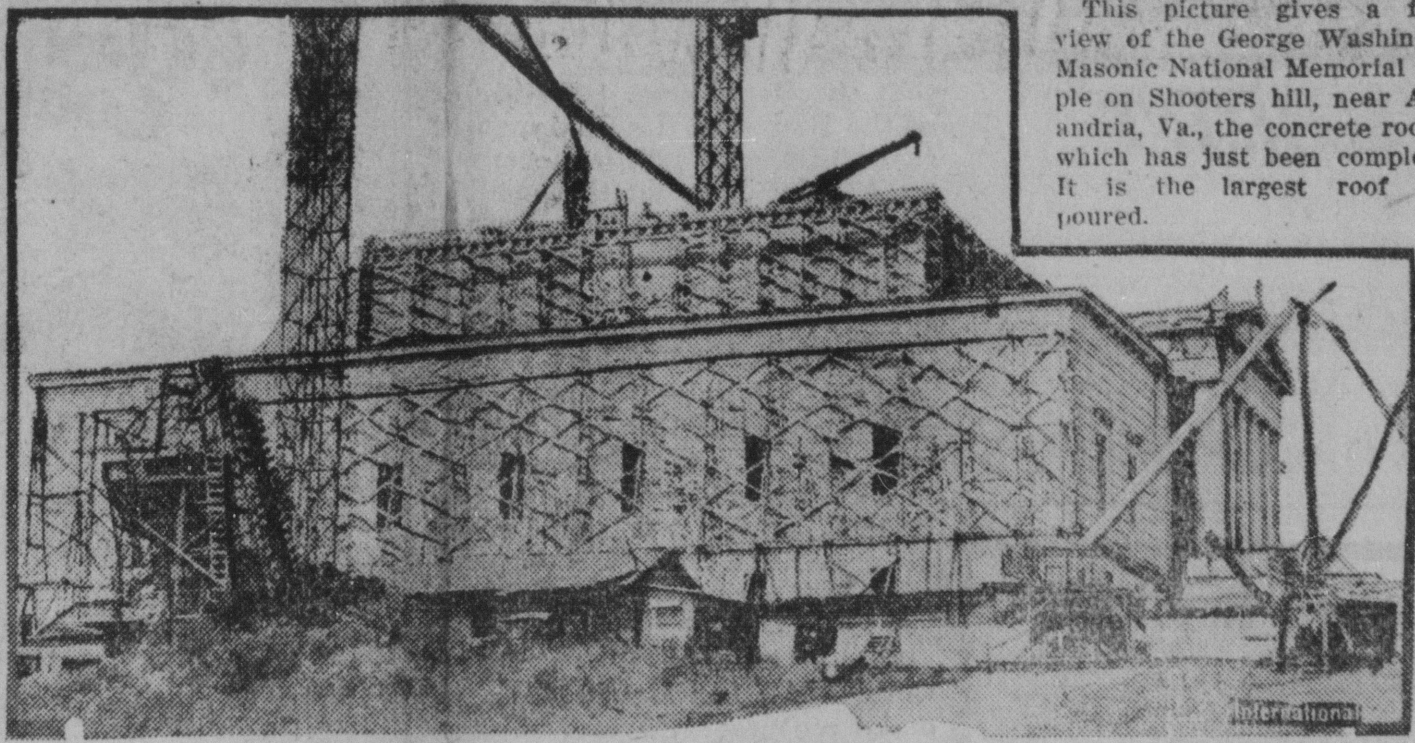

Thinking it must be a matter of life and death, Captain Summers ran the Baltic several miles out of its course and hove to off the lightship.

A bucket was let down over the side and while the 24,000-ton vessel wallowed in the swell and 558 passengers leaned over the rail the lightship keeper came alongside and solemnly dropped his letter into the pail.

"Much obliged," his thanks floated up to the towering decks through megaphoned hands. "It's my monthly report to the lighthouse service and it's due in two days. I wouldn't like to be late."

The letter was mailed two minutes after the Baltic docked.

HAPPENINGS IN OUR STATE

Taken Direct From Wires
By Correspondents of the United States Press Association.

Bellefontaine —John Dodds, 24, is in jail here charged with one of the boldest thefts ever recorded here. He is said to have stolen an entire dining room suite from the home of William M. Hall while the family was away and then sold it to a second-hand dealer here.

Columbus —Last spring a thief entered the house of Fred VanAlmsick, and stole a brand new suit of clothes leaving his tattered coat behind. He forgot the best Thursday he must have decided he needed it for he returned to the house again and took it.

Columbus —Freshmen enrolled at Ohio State university stood close to 3,000 today as new arrivals swelled the ranks of the yearlings.

Cincinnati —An argument between a father and son over a girl resulted in the stabbing early today of Sam Kerr, 50, by his son, Virgil, 22, in their house boat home here. The father is suffering from six stab wounds in the chest. His condition is reported serious.

Toledo —Officials of the city health department reported Friday that a new suspected case of infantile paralysis has been reported from here. The victim is a three year old child. A 34 year old man who is suffering with infantile paralysis has been confined at County Beach hospital for some time.

Irish Would Keep the Ogham Stones

Valentia, Irish Free State.—Kerry-men are up in arms because the most ancient of their monuments, the Ogham Stones, are being removed one by one to British museums. They likewise protest because the few remaining historic stones are being used in Ireland as gate posts and hearth stones.

Ogham was a manner of writing on stone and wood used by the ancient Irish. It is somewhat like some of the modern shorthand characters, consisting of straight or slanting lines to represent the consonants, and short straight lines to represent the vowels. One hundred and fifty kinds of Ogham writing have been used.

The Ogham stones are usually tombstones giving the name of the chieftain or clergyman buried beneath. Because of frequent clan conflicts the names of clans often are defaced. Some Ogham stones are not inscribed, and were merely landmarks to show the boundaries of clan lands, or to record battles, such as the Gates of Glory Pillars, near Ventry.

PARALYSIS CAUSES DEATH SARAH STOUT

In Columbus Thursday, Funeral At Dutch Hollow, Saturday Morning.

Mrs. Sarah Stout, widow of Joseph Stout, died Thursday morning at 8:30 o'clock at 136 Richards avenue, Columbus. She had been ill five weeks and her death was due to paralysis.

She was a former resident of this city and was born in Fairfield county, May 5, 1855, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Amos Stout. She is survived by one son, David Stout, of Columbus, and four grandchildren.

The body was brought to this city by Mader & Ebert and friends can view the remains at their chapel until Saturday morning at 9:30 o'clock when they will be taken to Dutch Hollow church where funeral services will be held at 10. Rev. Mr. Lutz officiating. Interment in the Dutch Hollow cemetery.

DR. STEVENSON IS RECOGNIZED BY CITY BOARD

Dr. Frank Stevenson, of Cincinnati son of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Stevenson, of Jackson township, has won deserved recognition from the Public Health Federation, Cincinnati. In a public health survey of the city, the association which works under the auspices of the American Public Health association, of New York City, has been selected by the association's executive secretary, Bleeker Marquette, to have charge of communicable diseases. Dr. Stevenson is in charge of the pediatric department at the General hospital and is chairman of this division.

The study is being conducted at the request of municipal public health board of Cincinnati, and will be quite extensive. It will be divided into different phases and sub-committees formed on the most essential branches of the work to be studied.

Bachelors' Lives Short

London.—Married men live four years longer in England than bachelors, it was stated before the Associated Bodies of Life Assurance Actuaries. According to Prof. G. Robertson, distinguished British medico-psychologist, insanity is three times as prevalent among single men and women as among married men and women. The organization went on record urging everyone to marry before the age of twenty five.

COUNTRY CLUB.

There is just a possibility that Circleville and Pickaway county will have a Country club. An option was taken on the farm of Emanuel Valentine Thursday. The location is ideal, just two miles east of town from the corner of Court and Main streets. There are 403 acres in the farm on rolling ground and would make a fine place. A meeting of those interested will be held this evening when it is thought that an organization will be effected.

MAY BE JAP ENVOY

Katsuji Debuchi, now vice minister of foreign affairs in Japan, is expected to succeed Tsumeo Matsudaira as Japanese ambassador to the United States. According to reports Ambassador Matsudaira will go to London as Japan's envoy.

Why the Big Stamps Are Not Very Popular

New York.—Refusal of the public to expend the energy and time needed to moisten and affix a large stamp is given by post-office officials as one reason for the falling off in the demand for the new 2-cent stamps celebrating the surrender of General Burgoyne.

Sales of the Burgoyne stamp, together with a stamp commemorating the battle of Bennington, have fallen off since they first went before the public on August 5. The Bennington stamp is of ordinary size, while the Burgoyne stamp is oblong, the shape of the special delivery stamp. The drop in demand for the Burgoyne issue has been more marked than that for the Bennington.

"Professional and amateur collectors and dealers bought both in large quantities in the first week," said Edward P. Russell, cashier of the post office. "Then the demand fell off. Business houses do not like to buy large stamps because of the extra work involved in stamping letters."

Arrested at Tarlton

Using obscene and licentious language in the presence of a female got Wesley Leasure and William Armstrong in trouble at Tarlton Wednesday evening. A warrant was sworn to by Bessie Goodman, charging the men with using bad language and they were placed under arrest by the sheriff's department. They were brought to this city, had a preliminary hearing before Justice Preece and were bound over to the grand jury in the sum of $300. In default they were placed in the county jail.

Coal Thieves.

Charles Sprouse, Willard Evans, Robert Adams and Asa Adams, charged with stealing coal from the Norfolk & Western railroad were placed under arrest Thursday afternoon by the sheriff's department and brought into probate court where they plead guilty and were each given a fine of $5 and costs which they paid and were released.

PUT A HARD ONE UP BEFORE JUDGE BLOSSER

Judge Blosser Thursday, was hearing the case of Robert L. Hyde against Jacob Minshall and others.

The litigation arose out of the interpretation of the extent of a partnership between the two main parties, Minshall being a tenant on Hyde's farm and the crops having been planted as a partnership matter.

In the process of some business relations between Minshall and the Second National bank of Circleville, Minshall, it seems, became liable to that institution for a certain sum of money and the bank, pursuing its rights, secured a cognovit judgment against him and levied on the property of Minshall on the Hyde farm.

The determination as to how far a levy of this kind might lie as a lien on partnership property and the extent of their disposal by execution without injuring the other partner, was a rather nice bit of legal puzzle which the court was called upon to solve before the tangle could be unwound.

Wilby G. Hyde was attorney for Robert L. Hyde and George Adkins of Circleville, represented the bank in that city.—Scioto Gazette.

WINTER'S QUESTION
President Coolidge will be a very extraordinary man if he can successfully resist the application of the third degree this winter, in the shape of the pressure of his callers to find out exactly what he meant by the now famous verb "choose." It is the one question which everybody in American politics is now asking. It will be upon which the returning statesman will be questioned in his home city—just what does the President mean?
If Mr. Coolidge can keep the public guessing, or continue the present uncertainty, it will be a magical manipulation of public sentiment. One day we are told—and we always believe it—that the country is coming to take him at his word, and to look for his successor; the next day we read that the Republican floor leader of the House, or the Chairman of some influential political committee has decided that the nomination will go to Coolidge, and to nobody else. And out of the confusion and uncertainty, what conclusion is the average American to reach?
Meanwhile it will remain altogether easy for the President to make his position absolutely clear in case he desires to do so. The English language is undoubtedly deficient in words for the conveying of certain thoughts, but it has an adequate vocabulary for attending to such a situation as this, if the President desires to make recourse thereto.—Boston Herald.

Columbus, O., (Special) —

Vastly different situations are facing the two parties—Democratic and Republican—with reference to the state campaign in Ohio next year. The situations are so at variance as to attract attention and cause no end of
comment among the close followers
of political events. In some ways it is analogous to the situation which has existed in the three last campaigns, in each of which Governor
Donahey was elected.A few months ago there were indications that the Democrats would find themselves facing a primary in August, 1928, with at least two outstanding candidates for the gubernatorial nomination, the governor himself and Congressman Martin L.
Davey, of Kent, national representative from the 14th Ohio district. This might have provoked a determined and animated contest. The governor, however, has simplified matters
by his positive declaration that he will not be a candidate for the office again. He is thoroughly sincere in this and his reasons are sound. The logical conclusion is that there is a desire in his mind to go to the United States senate and he is perfectly willing to test strength in the election
against Senator Simeon D. Fess, or whoever is nominated by the Republicans. There seems little probability that any one in the Democratic ranks
will care to contest the senatorial nomination against Donahey. No one
yet has even been named as an active
candidate and those who are in a receptive frame of mind are not likely to try conclusions with the governor.

Leaves Davey for Governor.

The outcome of this situation is to leave Congressman Davey as the
outstanding figure for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination. It is generally conceded he will go into
the primaries far in the lead of any
opponent and it would not be surprising if there were no other in the field.
He is the only candidate apparently
in whom there is a widespread popular interest. That he should have made such progress, without having definitely declared himself, indicates
the very real strength of Mr. Davey.
His friends in pointing out the
characteristics which command him
to the public mind speak of his repeated elections in a Republican district, by constantly growing majoritities, and give this as a test of vote getting ability. They say he is the one candidate mentioned, on the Democratic side, who appeals to the people as a man who has done big things and would make a great governor.

Republican Situation Divided.

Republicans are in a condition less
conducive to peace of mind, both as
to the senatorship and the governor-ship. At the present time there are indications that Senator Fess may have to face a very lively fight for renomination. It is said that Chief Justices Marshall of the Ohio supreme court and Charles L. Knight, publisher of the Akron Beacon Journal, both
have ambitions for the senatorial toga. Chief Justice Marshall has been saying and doing things that keep
him in the limelight while Publisher
Knight has been traveling hither and
yon thruout the state denouncing
"papsuckers" and governmental interference with everything. Both men are hard hitting fighters and the outcome of a threecornered race with Fess in it would be extremely doubtful and might leave scars that would be slow in healing.The gubernatorial situation also furrows the brow and perplexes the
mind of the state Republican leaders.
Undoubtedly the outstanding candidates at the present are Myers Y.
Cooper, who was defeated by Dona-hey in 1926; Congressman James T. Begg, of the 13th district; Attorney General Edward C. Turner and Colonel Carmi Thompson. Each has strong support and possesses elements of strength sufficient to command attention but in many ways are diametrically opposed and no one could well hope to draw from the followers of the others.Mr. Turner has come more rapidly
to the front than the others during the past few weeks. This finds its basis in the attacks he has made in public speeches upon the Anti-Saloon
League and public utilities ascribing
to these two factors the power to control legislation in the state. While he could not expect the support of
either the league or the utilities, it
might bring strength from othersources, which would prove of vote
getting power. Myers Y. Cooper
takes the position that his battle
against Donahey in 1926 entitles him
to first consideration this year. His claim is given strength by the fact that he ran only 18,000 votes behind
a candidate who at that time was considered invincible. Cooper is in a frame of mind to put up a hard fight
for nomination.If these were the only candidates
on the Republican side the situation
would be less perplexing. But a number of others are spoken of as serious contenders. The list is a long
one and includes men of prominence
among whom are Congressman John
G. Cooper, of the 19th district; Secretary of State Clarence J. Brown;
Former Governor Harry L. Davis,
who is considered by many as not
unlikely to enter the race again; Chester C. Bolton, state senator and leader of the Republicans in the upper branch of the state legislature; former Secretary of State Thad Brown
and a number of Republican congressmen.While the list is sufficiently long to furnish the selection of an excellent nominee the fear is strong that dissension may follow in the wake
and a situation similar to that of the present itself. It is to overcome this campaign of 1922, 1924 and 1926,
that State Chairman Fred E. Warner and other men prominent in the party are devoting their efforts.Mr. Warner contemplates calling
a meeting of the state central committee soon to discuss the problem
and reach a solution, if one can be found.—George U. Marvin.For Proper DigestionWe have it from an eminent explorer that cannibals are very proud

Bird a Policeman
Throughout the year the mocking-bird sings as he eats the rice weevil, chinch bug and cottonworm, or wild fruit. He polices his territory, says Nature Magazine, sounds alarm to all birds in the neighborhood, and is unfearing in defense of his home. He selects a thicket near the habitation of man and builds a coarse nest for the four to six greenish-blue eggs which are freckled at the larger end.

JEWISH PEOPLE MOST SOCIAL SURVEY SHOWS

Jewish people apparently are the most social of all the various groups which go to make up the population of the United States.

A study of non-business telegrams, extending over a considerable period and just completed by the statisticians of the Western Union Telegraph company, shows that Jewish people send telegrams of congratulations and wellwishing much more frequently than members of any other group. Occasions for such messages are numerous and include noticeably heavy files of greeting messages on Thanksgiving, Christmas, Easter, Mother's day and Father's day.

It is a common occurrence for a popular Jewish couple to receive as high as 50 telegrams of congratulations and good wishes from relatives and friends on the occasion of their marriage. Births and christenings also are the occasions for numerous messages of congratulations. Jewish people, too, are quick to express sympathy in time of trouble or bereavement, and the total volume of messages of condolence sent in New York alone probably is greater than is sent by all other groups combined.

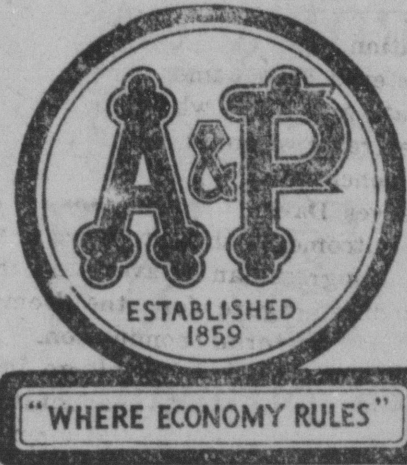

Altho Jewish people have shown great cordiality for all American holidays, the outstanding occasion for their sending greeting messages is Rosh Hashana, the Jewish New Year, which falls on September 27-28. On this traffic become that the Western are exchanged. It is not unusual for a Jewish rabbi to receive as many as 500 messages of greeting at this time. So great has the volume of this traffic become that the Western Union has instituted a special service similar to those for Thanksgiving, Christmas and Easter, and has provided specially decorated telegraph blanks for the occasion. This special service, started in 1925, showed a 30 percent increase in 1926, and promises a still greater gain this year.

Relics for University
Nine years after his death, the University of Arkansas has learned it is to receive the valuable collection of Indian relics of Capt. Carlos L. Von Berg, a famous government scout. When Von Berg died in 1918, he left most of his property to his wife and also specified his collection was to remain in her possession until her death. For this reason contents of the paper were not made public but recently the executor decided to file the will. Among the autographed pictures of notables is one of Theodore Roosevelt, still resting where the "Old Scout" placed it among those Indian chieftains.

AMUSEMENTS

Honest praise may be conservatively extended to Leo Maloney for his work as Leo McHale, the daring deputy sheriff in "Don Desperado," the Pathe western feature, written by Ford I. Beebe, and now showing at the Met theater.

Briefly, the story deals with the constant robbing of the gold sent by stage by the Black Bandit. The mine boss accuses the sheriff's office of incompetency, which creates a complication because deputy sheriff McHale loves the Boss' daughter, Doris. A trail thru the snow leads to the capture of the Black Bandit and an attempt at lynching follows. Leo saves his prisoner from the mob only to have him escape with the connivance of a crooked lawyer and mine agent.

In the end another sensational and daring capture is made, the crimes are pinned on the right men, the friendship of the mine boss is gained, and the girl is won.

In Maloney's support is the charming beauty, Eugenia Gilbert, who has played leading roles with him in several recent productions. Frederick Dana, Charles Bartlett and Bud Osborne give really splendid performances.

The Message That Built Up Our Business

Merchandise talks, even more loudly than Money, and it speaks a language that Mr. Average Man and Woman understands very well.

Every article that you buy in our stores carries a message into your home—a message that is repeated day after day—often, year after year—a message that does more to build up our business than thousands of pages of newspaper advertising.

Twenty-five years ago the founder of this business realized that his future depended on this message. Our present organization of 885 stores, scattered thruout 46 states, has been built up entirely on the strength of what our merchandise has told you about us for a quarter of a century.

BLACKSTONE, THE MAGICIAN.

Blackstone, the famous magician, is now on his annual tour, and will play an engagement at the Grand theater three nights beginning Monday, October 3, with matinee shows proficiency in every branch of magic. His mysterious range from feats of digital dexterity to wonderful scenic and electrical effects. The mechanical marvels presented are varied with amusing tricks, while in a serious vein he presents hair raising experiments of a psychic nature—even to the apparent materialization of "spooks."

In upholding his prestige as a "Master Magician," Blackstone has spared no expense or effort. A huge array of paraphernalia taxing the capacity of a seventy foot baggage car is utilized in the production of his huge effects and every principle of stage craft finds in his elaborate program which requires the services of a company of twenty people, including a number of pretty girls.

Blackstone's program includes a number of new mysteries of absolute novelty, such as The Big Oriental Spectacle, "Oriental Nights" with the vanishing horse, "The Radio Girl" "The Birth of Fashion," "The Map of Europe," "Duck Inn," "The Disappearing Canary," "Where do Ducks Go," "The Dancing Handkerchief," "Alice in Wonderland," "Spookland" and many other new and mystifying numbers.

AUBURN

Stock Straight Eight

After running 10,000 miles in less than 9479 minutes (63.302 M. P. H.)

then—

1,000 miles at 72.512 M.P.H.

No one can imagine the strain of 10,000 continuous miles at 63 miles an hour!

No stock car had ever officially made such a performance until now!

An Auburn 8-88 stock car has set this new mark, under A. A. A. official sanction and supervision.

And this record stands as faster and twice greater, than the longest previous record.

After these epochal 10,000 miles, the car was taken off the track, thoroughly checked, necessary replacements made, tuned and greased.

Then, back it went, and the driver told to drive it hard for 1,000 miles more. That was heaping punishment on top of punishment!

The driver was instructed to drive it Hard until it broke up. See what happened. It went 1,000 miles at more than 72 m. p. h. It went 24 hours at 72.192 m. p. h. It went 2,000 miles at 68.587 m. p. h. Then 2,500 miles at 71.194 m. p. h. And finally broke a cylinder block after doing 12,558 miles at 63.09 m. p. h. Never has there been such proof of reserve strength, durability and speed.

Because this 1,000 mile performance had not been applied for, previously, as an attempt for a record, it does not stand as an official A.A.A. record, but its time was officially recorded by the A. A. A.

During this, the longest, fastest, and hardest official A. A. A. stock car test ever made, Auburn broke all records for fully equipped certified stock cars from

cially recorded by the A. A. A.

This phenomenal exposition of motor car value was held recently on the Atlantic City Speedway, where Auburn determined to exceed by three times, any previous attempt to test stock car speed and endurance.

To break the official stock car records from 5 to 5,000 miles was not enough for Auburn.

The three Auburn stock cars, two roadsters and one sedan, were scheduled for a day and night grind for 15,000 miles.

From 5 to 5,000 miles 37 stock car official records were broken. But Auburn doubled that distance, and then tripled it. Auburn determined to overwhelmingly exceed the utmost of any previous attainment. From 5,000 to 15,000 miles 34 new records were established with lightning rapidity. New achievements were recorded beyond the extreme limit of all former heights. It is the greatest demonstration of proper engineering, uniform quality in every one of the several thousand parts in a motor car, and the greatest proof of sound value ever furnished the public by any motor car manufacturer.

Your Auburn dealer has exact duplicates of the cars that have set this new standard for the entire industry.

Drive one, and if it does not sell itself, you will not be asked to buy.

JEFFERSON'S

Home Town Is Urged For The Democratic Meet.

Washington, D. C. Sept. 20.—An appeal to the Democratic party to hold its 1928 convention at Charlottesville, Va., "in sight of the home of Thomas Jefferson," was issued today by Senator T. H. Caraway (D), of Arkansas.

Caraway proposed the little Virginia town so the Democrats will be in the "proper atmosphere to rededicate the party to the aim and principals of Thomas Jefferson."

"The Democratic party must go back to its first principles—the Jeffersonian principles of Democracy—if it is to be victorious in the next presidential campaign," said Caraway. "If the party holds its convention at Jefferson's home it will be a great step toward eliminating the ill-feeling and heated controversies that swept the party three years ago."

The cities of Cleveland and Cincinnati are frowned upon by other groups because Governor Vic Donahey, of Ohio, will be a "dark horse" at the convention.

COLOR OF

WAR HORSES

If there is another war the color of army horses will be a matter of concern. This is one result of the development of the airplane. Cavalry visible from above must have some protective coloring. Plainly the white horse will not do, nor perhaps the gray the roan or the sorrell, at least without some effective form of camouflage.

It would seem to the layman that a dark chestnut might be the least distinguishable color in the circumstances. But the chestnut is not so common as the black or the bay. Apparently the problem should have serious consideration from the military authorities.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

MAYOR DUVALL INDIANAPOLIS FOUND GUILTY

Mayor John L. Duvall of Indianapolis, was found guilty Thursday night by a jury in criminal court of charges of violating the corrupt practices act. The verdict calls for a fine of $1000 and a sentence of 30 days in jail.

The jury was out a little more than three hours, but more than one hour was taken for dinner. It reported to Judge C. C. Shirley.

Under the law Mayor Duvall is ineligible to hold public office for four years from the commission of the crime.

"I have nothing to say" Mayor Duvall said. He was pale when the verdict was read.

The jury's verdict was found to be erroneous in so far as it pertained to Duvall's eligibility to hold public office. It provided that the convicted man should not hold public office from the date of the finding, while the law provides that it shall be from the date of the commission of the crime. The jury corrected the verdict to make the time of ineligibility as from November 2, 1925.

Duvall was released for the night on his own recognizance, with instructions to report to the court Friday morning at 9 o'clock. Judge Shirley declined to say whether he would pronounce sentence.

SOCIAL CALENDAR

Mrs. Lucy Sharp and daughter, Miss Edna, of Johnstown, New York and Mrs. Nellie Johnson, and Mrs. Carl Urton and son, Richard, of Columbus, were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wade Cook, of East Main street, Thursday.

The Zanesville Times Recorder of Wednesday, September 21, carries the following announcement which is of interest to the many friends of Mr. Charles M. Haynes:

"The marriage of Mrs. Bertha Carey, Sunset avenue, and Charles M. Haynes, Chillicothe, will take place at 9 o'clock, Saturday morning, October 1, at Grace Methodist Episcopal church. The service will be read by Dr. James Myron Shimer, pastor of the church. No formal invitations will be issued for the wedding and only a small group of friends will be present.

Mrs. Cary is prominent in social circles in Zanesville and is treasurer of Grace Church Day organization. Mr. Haynes is an optician with an office in Chillicothe.

Following the ceremony, the newly married couple will go to Akron, where they will witness the marriage of Miss Katherine Litchfield and Mr. Howard Hyde. Later, they will enjoy a wedding tour after which they will be at home to their friends at Westbrook, Chillicothe. The principals of this happy affair will have the felicitations of hosts of friends."

Mrs. Franklin Kibler entertained the members of her thimble club at her home in Columbus yesterday. Those present from this city were, Mrs. R. R. Bales, Mrs. S. B. Orr, Mrs. R. F. Lilly, Mrs. G. A. Teegarden; Mrs. H.

W. Plum, Mrs. George S. Corne, Mrs. Harley Colwell, Mrs. D. S. Dunlap, Mrs. O. S. Howard, Mrs. A. L. Wilder, Mrs. W. L. Mack.

Sweets Growing More Popular in America

Washington.—Fathers and mothers seem to be getting more indulgent in the United States, or else the fathers and mothers themselves are consuming more candy, chewing gum and ice cream, because the production of these three children's favorites is setting new altitude records nearly every year. The Commerce department's census of manufactures discloses tremendous increases which small boys will find hard to believe. Comparing 1914 figures with those for 1925, the following was set forth:

The nation now produces $47,833,000 worth of chewing gum, compared with the pre-war figure of $17,000,000, and the product still sells for a nickel a package.

The ice cream bill is $286,175,686 a year, compared with $55,983,133 in 1914.

Candy costs $379,081,411, compared with $153,685,523 in 1914.

This present bill of $700,000,000 or more—about $85 annually per small boy—if small boys got all of it—doesn't represent all the money spent by dad and sister's sheik, either, for these figures are wholesale prices.

Retail prices will boost these three industries into the $1,000,000,000-a-year figure, experts believe.

The increases are variously attributed to prohibition, advertising, increasing export trade, and the attempt of the factories to catch up with the appetites of small boys and high school girls.

They're Not Ferocious

Tiger moths are so called from the beauty of their variegated coloring, says Nature Magazine, and not from any ferocious tendencies. They are contrastedly spotted and branded or pure snow white.

TUNNEY WINS THE DECISION OVER ADVERSARY DEMPSEY

Greatest Crowd In the History of the Ring Present at Soldiers Field, Chicago, Thursday—Over 150,000 Present—Gate Receipts Nearly $3,000,000—Champion Was Nearly Knocked Out In Seventh Round, but Finishes Strong, Dempsey Is Groggy.

Gene Tunney, the man of destiny is still heavyweight champion of the world, but his crown was perilously close to being toppled from his head Thursday night at Soldiers Field, Chicago, by the gallant thrust of the old warrior, Jack Dempsey, in the greatest boxing spectacle of all time.

Tunney's hand was raised in victory at the end of a slashing, smashing battle but only because he had the courage and fighting power for a sensational finish after being knocked down for a count of nine in the seventh round by Dempsey's vicious two-handed attack.

Only one second, in this seventh round, separated Dempsey from the greatest victory of his career, and an achievement no other ex-champion

GENE TUNNEY

Safely past this crisis, Tunney finished the last three rounds like a champion, regaining confidence, taking the aggressive and beating Dempsey into defeat with a two-handed, well-timed attack to the head. With his title in danger, Tunney had the stuff to put on a victorious rally. At the close of the final round Dempsey both eyes cut and badly bleeding, was groggy and reeling, "but on his feet."

So battered was the old champion, his last charge expended, that he did not seem to know the battle was over and had to be led to his corner.

JACK DEMPSEY

The Vanquished.

scores in the ringside section who thought the champion was saved from losing his crown in the seventh round by a count that was actually several seconds longer than the toll of nine.

It was unquestionably a "long

count"—from 12 to 14 seconds in all, to take the varying counts of ringside observers—but its explanation lay in the fact that Illinois boxing rules compelled the fighter scoring knockdown to go to his corner before the count starts. The time elapsing Dempsey's backing off to a corner accounted for the late start of the count, boxing commissioner explained.

Tunney took the count with his left hand holding the ropes. He was groggy and in bad shape, but fully conscious of the count. Had it started sooner, he probably would have been able to regain his feet, but he might have been wobblier and an easier target. As it was, he had the advantage of the few seconds added rest, a chance to collect his faculties and ward off Dempsey's attack.

The mightiest throng in fight or sporting history estimated at 150,000, paid the record-smashing sum of $2,800,000 to see the handsome ex-marine weather the spectacular challenge of the old mauler and to defeat as convincingly, if not as decisively, the man from whom Gene took the crown a year ago in the rain at Philadelphia.

Victory unquestionably went to the better man, the craftier boxer, the faster and stronger fighter, but was his only after the closest call he ever has had.

The drama of Tunney's title defense, stirring as was his decisive finish, was enacted principally in the seventh round. For it was here that the flashing old fighting spirit of Dempsey, making his greatest bid, came so close to accomplishing the unprecedented.

Thru the first half of the battle Tunney had boxed coolly and cautiously, shooting only when he saw his target and shooting accurately, while Dempsey always going in, found him self brought up time after time by jolting rights to the head or smart left jabs.

Once or twice Jack had lashed out with smashing body blows that hurt the champion but there was little warning of what was impending when the former champion suddenly launched a vicious drive to the head in the seventh round. Perhaps Tunney was off guard, for his foe had aimed his attack previously at the body. But at any rate Dempsey connected solidly with a series of staggering smashes.

A right hand to the jaw sent Tunney back to the ropes, sagging at the knees. He was on his way down when a left hook clipped him and completed the job.

Halts Liner at Sea to Mail His Report

New York.—The skipper of the Nantucket shoals lightship believes in being punctual, even if he has to commandeer a 700-foot ocean liner to help him out.

When the White Star liner Baltic arrived the other day, Capt. F. F. Summers told of receiving a wireless message while at sea from the lighthouse keeper asking him to stop by for an important letter.

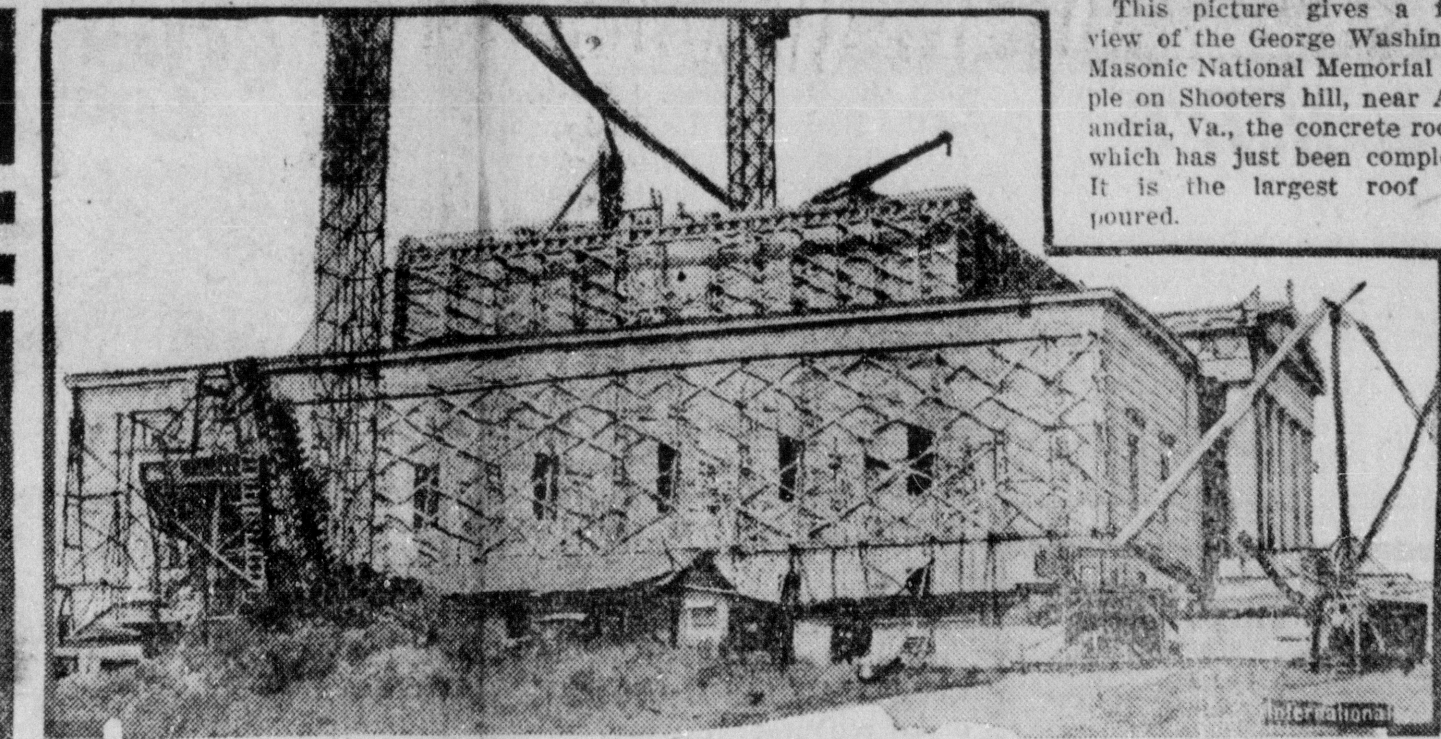

Thinking it must be a matter of life and death, Captain Summers ran the Baltic several miles out of its course and hove to off the lightship.

A bucket was let down over the side and while the 24,000-ton vessel wallowed in the swell and 558 passengers leaned over the rail the lightship keeper came alongside and solemnly dropped his letter into the mail.

"Much obliged," his thanks floated up to the towering decks through megaphoned hands. "It's my monthly report to the lighthouse service and it's due in two days. I wouldn't like to be late."

The letter was mailed two minutes after the Baltic docked.

NEWS ABOUT COURT HOUSE

General Happenings Taken From the Records of the Various County Offices

Arrested at Tarlton

Using obscene and licentious language in the presence of a female got Wesley Leasure and William Armstrong in trouble at Tarlton Wednesday evening. A warrant was sworn to by Bessie Goodman, charging the men with using bad language and they were placed under arrest by the sheriff's department. They were brought to this city, had a preliminary hearing before Justice Friece and were bound over to the grand jury in the sum of $300. In default they were placed in the county jail.

Coal Thieves.

Charles Sprouse, Willard Evans, Robert Adams and Asa Adams, charged with stealing coal from the Norfolk & Western railroad were placed under arrest Thursday afternoon by the sheriff's department and brought into probate court where they plead guilty and were each given a fine of $5 and costs which they paid and were released.

PUT A HARD ONE UP BEFORE JUDGE BLOSSER

Judge Blosser Thursday, was hearing the case of Robert L. Hyde against Jacob Minshall and others.

The litigation arose out of the interpretation of the extent of a partnership between the two main parties, Minshall being a tenant on Hyde's farm and the crops having been planted as a partnership matter.

In the process of some business relations between Minshall and the Second National bank of Circleville, Minshall, it seems, became liable to that institution for a certain sum of money and the bank, pursuing its rights, secured a cognovit judgment against him and levied on the property of Minshall on the Hyde farm.

The determination as to how far a levy of this kind might lie as a lien on partnership property and the extent of their disposal by execution without injuring the other partner, was a rather nice bit of legal puzzle which the court was called upon to solve before the tangle could be unwound.

Wilby G. Hyde was attorney for Robert L. Hyde and George Adkins of Circleville, represented the bank in that city.—Scioto Gazette.

HAPPENINGS IN OUR STATE

Taken Direct From Wires By Correspondents of the United States Press Association.

Bellefontaine —John Dodds, 24, is in jail here charged with one of the boldest thefts ever recorded here. He is said to have stolen an entire dining room suite from the home of William M. Hall while the family was away and then sold it to a second-hand dealer here.

Columbus —Last spring a thief entered the house of Fred VanAlmsick, and stole a brand new suit of clothes leaving his tattered coat behind. He forget the best Thursday he must have decided he needed it for he returned to the house again and took it.

Columbus —Freshmen enrolled at Ohio State university stood close to 3,000 today as new arrivals swelled the ranks of the yearlings.

Cincinnati —An argument between a father and son over a girl resulted in the stabbing early today of Sam Kerr, 50, by his son, Virgil, 22, in their house boat home here. The father is suffering from six stab wounds in the chest. His condition is reported serious.

Toledo —Officials of the city health department reported Friday that a new suspected case of infantile paralysis has been reported from here. The victim is a three year old child. A 34 year old man who is suffering with infantile paralysis has been confined at County Beach hospital for some time.

Irish Would Keep the Ogham Stones

Valentia, Irish Free State.—Kerry men are up in arms because the most ancient of their monuments, the Ogham Stones, are being removed one by one to British museums. They likewise protest because the few remaining historic stones are being used in Ireland as gate posts and hearth stones.

Ogham was a manner of writing on stone and wood used by the ancient Irish. It is somewhat like some of the modern shorthand characters, consisting of straight or slanting lines to represent the consonants, and short straight lines to represent the vowels. One hundred and fifty kinds of Ogham writing have been used.

The Ogham stones are usually tombstones giving the name of the chieftain or clergyman buried beneath. Because of frequent clan conflicts the names of clans often are defaced. Some Ogham stones are not inscribed, and were merely landmarks to show the boundaries of clan lands, or to record battles, such as the Gates of Glory Pillars, near Ventry.

PARALYSIS CAUSES DEATH SARAH STOUT

In Columbus Thursday, Funeral At Dutch Hollow, Saturday Morning.

Mrs. Sarah Stout, widow of Joseph Stout, died Thursday morning at 8:30 o'clock at 136 Richards avenue, Columbus. She had been ill five weeks and her death was due to paralysis.

She was a former resident of this city and was born in Fairfield county, May 5, 1855, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Amos Stout. She is survived by one son, David Stout, of Columbus, and four grandchildren.

The body was brought to this city by Mader & Ebert and friends can view the remains at their chapel until Saturday morning at 9:30 o'clock when they will be taken to Dutch Hollow church where funeral services will be held at 10. Rev. Mr. Lutz officiating. Interment in the Dutch Hollow cemetery.

DR. STEVENSON IS RECOGNIZED BY CITY BOARD

Dr. Frank Stevenson, of Cincinnati son of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Stevenson, of Jackson township, has won deserved recognition from the Public Health Federation, Cincinnati. In a public health survey of the city, the association which works under the auspices of the American Public Health association, of New York City, has been selected by the association's executive secretary, Bleeker Marquette, to have charge of communicable diseases. Dr. Stevenson is in charge of the pediatric department at the General hospital and is chairman of this division.

The study is being conducted at the request of municipal public health board of Cincinnati, and will be quite extensive. It will be divided into different phases and sub-committees formed on the most essential branches of the work to be studied.

Bachelors' Lives Short

London.—Married men live four years longer in England than bachelors, it was stated before the Associated Bodies of Life Assurance Actuaries. According to Prof. G. Robertson, distinguished British medico-psychologist, insanity is three times as prevalent among single men and women as among married men and women. The organization went on record urging everyone to marry before the age of twenty five.

COUNTRY CLUB.

There is just a possibility that Circleville and Pickaway county will have a Country club. An option was taken on the farm of Emanuel Valentine Thursday. The location is ideal, just two miles east of town from the corner of Court and Main streets. There are 103 acres in the farm on rolling ground and would make a fine place. A meeting of those interested will be held this evening when it is thought that an organization will be effected.

MAY BE JAP ENVOY

Katsuji Debuchi, now vice minister of foreign affairs in Japan, is expected to succeed Tsumao Matsudaira as Japanese ambassador to the United States. According to reports Ambassador Matsudaira will go to London as Japan's envoy.

Why the Big Stamps Are Not Very Popular

New York.—Refusal of the public to expend the energy and time needed to moisten and affix a large stamp is given by post-office officials as one reason for the falling off in the demand for the new 2-cent stamps celebrating the surrender of General Burgoyne.

Sales of the Burgoyne stamp, together with a stamp commemorating the battle of Bennington, have fallen off since they first went before the public on August 5. The Bennington stamp is of ordinary size, while the Burgoyne stamp is oblong, the shape of the special delivery stamp. The drop in demand for the Burgoyne issue has been more marked than that for the Bennington.

"Professional and amateur collectors and dealers bought both in large quantities in the first week," said Edward P. Russell, cashier of the post office. "Then the demand fell off. Business houses do not like to buy large stamps because of the extra work involved in stamping letters."

WINTER'S QUESTION

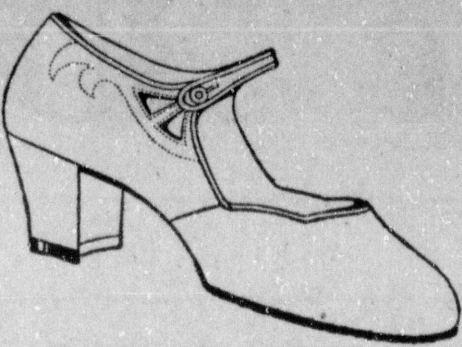

President Coolidge will be a very extraordinary man if he can successfully resist the application of the third degree this winter, in the shape of the pressure of his callers to find out exactly what he meant by the now famous verb "choose." It is the one question which everybody in American politics is now asking. It will be upon which the returning statesman will be questioned in his home city—just what does the President mean?

If Mr. Coolidge can keep the public guessing, or continue the present uncertainty, it will be a magical manipulation of public sentiment. One day we are told—and we always believe it—that the country is coming to take him at his word, and to look for his successor; the next day we read that the Republican floor leader of the House, or the Chairman of some influential political committee has decided that the nomination will go to Coolidge, and to nobody else. And out of the confusion and uncertainty, what conclusion is the average American to reach?

Meanwhile it will remain altogether easy for the President to make his position absolutely clear in case he desires to do so. The English language is undoubtedly deficient in words for the conveying of certain thoughts, but it has an adequate vocabulary for attending to such a situation as this, if the President desires to make recourse thereto.—Boston Herald.

First Street Railways
Boston's first street railway was opened in 1850, and Philadelphia inaugurated a similar service the following year. The first street railway in England was at Birkenhead in 1860. In the same year a line was laid in Liverpool, and London's first "train" dates from 1869. The first street railway in France was from St. Cloud to Paris and was constructed in 1856.

Try For Toga.Columbus, O., (Special) —
Vastly different situations are facing the two parties—Democratic and Republican—with reference to the state campaign in Ohio next year. The
situations are so at variance as to attract attention and cause no end of
comment among the close followers
of political events. In some ways it is analagous to the situation which
has existed in the three last campaigns, in each of which Governor
Donahey was elected.A few months ago there were indications that the Democrats would
find themselves facing a primary in August, 1928, with at least two out-
standing candidates for the gubernatorial
nomination, the governor him-
self and Congressman Martin L.
Davey, of Kent, national representative from the 14th Ohio district. This might have provoked a determined
and animated contest. The governor, however, has simplified matters
by his positive declaration that he
will not be a candidate for the office
again. He is thoroly sincere in this and his reasons are sound. The logical conclusion is that there is a desire in his mind to go to the United States senate and he is perfectly willing to test strength in the election
against Senator Simeon D. Fess, or whoever is nominated by the Republicans. There seems little probability that any one in the Democratic ranks
will care to contest the senatorial
nomination against Donahey. No one
yet has even been named as an active
candidate and those who are in a receptive frame of mind are not likely to try conclusions with the governor.Leaves Davey for Governor.
The outcome of this situation is to
leave Congressman Davey as the
outstanding figure for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination. It is generally conceded he will go into
the primaries far in the lead of any
opponent and it would not be surprising if there were no other in the field.
He is the only candidate apparently
in whom there is a widespread popular interest. That he should have made such progress, without having
definitely declared himself, indicates
the very real strength of Mr. Davey.
His friends in pointing out the
characteristics which command him
to the public mind speak of his repeated elections in a Republican district, by constantly growing majorities,
and give this as a test of vote
getting ability. They say he is the one candidate mentioned, on the Democratic side, who appeals to the
people as a man who has done big
things and would make a great governor.Republican Situation Divided.
Republicans are in a condition less
conducive to peace of mind, both as
to the senatorship and the governor-
ship. At the present time there are indications that Senator Fess may
have to face a very lively fight for renomination. It is said that Chief Justice Marshall of the Ohio supreme court and Charles L. Knight, publisher of the Akron Beacon Journal, both
have ambitions for the senatorial
toga. Chief Justice Marshall has been saying and doing things that keep
him in the limelight while Publisher
Knight has been traveling hither and
yon thruout the state denouncing
"papsuckers" and governmental interference with everything. Both men are hard hitting fighters and the outcome of a threecornered race with Fess in it would be extremely doubt-
ful and might leave scars that would
be slow in healing.The gubernatorial situation also
furrows the brow and perplexes the
mind of the state Republican leaders.
Undoubtedly the outstanding candidates at the present are Myers Y.
Cooper, who was defeated by Don-ahey in 1926; Congressman James T. Begg, of the 13th district; Attorney General Edward C. Turner and Colonel Carmi Thompson. Each has
strong support and possesses elements of strength sufficient to command attention but in many ways are
diametrically opposed and no one
could well hope to draw from the
followers of the others.Mr. Turner has come more rapidly
to the front than the others during
the past few weeks. This finds its
basis in the attacks he has made in
public speeches upon the Anti-Saloon
League and public utilities ascribing
to these two factors the power to control legislation in the state. While
he could not expect the support of
either the league or the utilities, it
might bring strength from othersources, which would prove of vote
getting power. Myers Y. Cooper
takes the position that his battle
against Donahey in 1926 entitles him
to first consideration this year. His
claim is given strength by the fact
that he ran only 18,000 votes behind
a candidate who at that time was considered invincible. Cooper is in a frame of mind to put up a hard fight
for nomination.If these were the only candidates
on the Republican side the situation
would be less perplexing. But a number of others are spoken of as
serious contenders. The list is a long
one and includes men of prominence
among whom are Congressman John
G. Cooper, of the 19th district; Secretary of State Clarence J. Brown;
Former Governor Harry L. Davis,
who is considered by many as not
unlikely to enter the race again; Chester C. Bolton, state senator and leader of the Republicans in the upper
branch of the state legislature; former Secretary of State Thad Brown
and a number of Republican congressmen.While the list is sufficiently long to furnish the selection of an excellent nominee the fear is strong that
dissension may follow in the wake
and a situation similar to that of the present itself. It is to overcome this
campaign of 1922, 1924 and 1926,
that State Chairman Fred E. Warner and other men prominent in the party are devoting their efforts.Mr. Warner contemplates calling
a meeting of the state central committee soon to discuss the problem
and reach a solution, if one can be found.—George U. Marvin.For Proper DigestionWe have it from an eminent ex-

Bird a Policeman
Throughout the year the mocking-bird sings as he eats the rice weevil, chinch bug and cottonworm, or wild fruit. He polices his territory, says Nature Magazine, sounds alarm to all birds in the neighborhood, and is un-fearing in defense of his home. He selects a thicket near the habitation of man and builds a coarse nest for the four to six greenish-blue eggs which are freckled at the larger end.

JEWISH PEOPLE MOST SOCIAL SURVEY SHOWS

Jewish people apparently are the most social of all the various groups which go to make up the population of the United States.

A study of non-business telegrams, extending over a considerable period and just completed by the statisticians of the Western Union Telegraph company, shows that Jewish people send telegrams of congratulations and wellwishing much more frequent than members of any other group. Occasions for such messages are numerous and include noticeably heavy files of greeting messages on Thanksgiving, Christmas, Easter, Mother's day and Father's day.

It is a common occurrence for a popular Jewish couple to receive as high as 50 telegrams of congratulations and good wishes from relatives and friends on the occasion of their marriage. Births and christenings also are the occasions for numerous messages of congratulations. Jewish people, too, are quick to express sympathy in time of trouble or bereavement, and the total volume of messages of condolence sent in New York alone probably is greater than is sent by all other groups combined.

Altho Jewish people have shown great cordiality for all American holidays, the outstanding occasion for their sending greeting messages is Rosh Hashana, the Jewish New Year, which falls on September 27-28. On this traffic become that the Western are exchanged. It is not unusual for a Jewish rabbi to receive as many as 500 messages of greeting at this time. So great has the volume of this traffic become that the Western Union has instituted a special service similar to those for Thanksgiving, Christmas and Easter, and has provided specially decorated telegraph blanks for the occasion. This special service, started in 1925, showed a 30 percent increase in 1926, and promises a still greater gain this year.

Relics for University

Nine years after his death, the University of Arkansas has learned it is to receive the valuable collection of Indian relics of Capt. Carlos L. Von Berg, a famous government scout. When Von Berg died in 1918, he left most of his property to his wife and also specified his collection was to remain in her possession until her death. For this reason contents of the paper were not made public but recently the executor decided to file the will. Among the autographed pictures of notables is one of Theodore Roosevelt, still resting where the "Old Scout" placed it among those Indian chieftains.

AMUSEMENTS

Honest praise may be conservatively extended to Leo Maloney for his work as Leo Maloney, the daring deputy sheriff in "Don Desperado," the Pathe western feature, written by Ford I. Beebe, and now showing at the Met theater.

Briefly, the story deals with the constant robbing of the gold sent by stage by the Black Bandit. The mine boss accuses the sheriff's office of incompetency, which creates a complication because deputy sheriff McHale loves the Boss' daughter, Doris. A trail thru the snow leads to the capture of the Black Bandit and an attempt at lynching follows. Leo saves his prisoner from the mob only to have him escape with the connivance of a crooked lawyer and mine agent.

In the end another sensational and daring capture is made, the crimes are pinned on the right men, the friendship of the mine boss is gained, and the girl is won.

In Maloney's support is the charming beauty, Eugenia Gilbert, who has played leading roles with him in several recent productions. Frederick Dana, Charles Bartlett and Bud Osborne give really splendid performances.

BLACKSTONE, THE MAGICIAN.

Blackstone, the famous magician, is now on his annual tour, and will play an engagement at the Grand theater three nights beginning Monday, October 3, with matinee shows proficiency in every branch of magic. His mysterious range from feats of digital dexterity to wonderful scenic and electrical effects. The mechanical marvels presented are varied with amusing tricks, while in a serious vein he presents hair raising experiments of a psychic nature—even to the apparent materialization of "spooks."

In upholding his prestige as a "Master Magician," Blackstone has spared no expense or effort. A huge array of paraphernalia taxing the capacity of a seventy foot baggage car is utilized in the production of his huge effects and every principle of stage craft finds in his elaborate program which requires the services of a company of twenty people, including a number of pretty girls.

Blackstone's program includes a number of new mysteries of absolute novelty, such as "The Big Oriental Specticle," "Oriental Nights" with the vanishing horse, "The Radio Girl," "The Birth of Fashion," "The Map of Europe," "Duck Inn," "The Disappearing Canary," "Where do Ducks Go," "The Dancing Handkerchief," "Alice in Wonderland," "Spookland" and many other new and mystifying numbers.

JEFFERSON'S

Home Town Is Urged For The Democratic Meet.

Washington, D. C. Sept. 20.—An appeal to the Democratic party to hold its 1928 convention at Charlottesville, Va., "in sight of the home of Thomas Jefferson," was issued today by Senator T. H. Caraway (D), of Arkansas.

Caraway proposed the little Virginia town so the Democrats will be in the "proper atmosphere to rededicate the party to the aim and principals of Thomas Jefferson."

"The Democratic party must go back to its first principles—the Jeffersonian principles of Democracy—if it is to be victorious in the next presidential campaign," said Caraway. "If the party holds its convention at Jefferson's home it will be a great step toward eliminating the ill-feeling and heated controversies that swept the party three years ago.

The cities of Cleveland and Cincinnati are frowned upon by other groups because Governor Vic Donahey, of Ohio, will be a "dark horse" at the convention.

AUBURN

Stock Straight Eight

After running 10,000 miles in less than 9479 minutes (63.302 M. P. H.)

then—

1,000 miles at 72.512 M.P.H.

No one can imagine the strain of 10,000 continuous miles at 63 miles an hour!

No stock car had ever officially made such a performance until now!

An Auburn 8-88 stock car has set this new mark, under A. A. A. official sanction and supervision.

And this record stands as faster and twice greater, than the longest previous record.

After these epochal 10,000 miles, the car was taken off the track, thoroughly checked, necessary replacements made, tuned and greased.

Then, back it went, and the driver told to drive it hard for 1,000 miles more. That was heaping punishment on top of punishment!

The driver was instructed to drive it Hard until it broke up. See what happened. It went 1,000 miles at more than 72 m. p. h. It went 24 hours at 72.192 m. p. h. It went 2,000 miles at 68.587 m. p. h. Then 2,500 miles at 71.194 m. p. h. And finally broke a cylinder block after doing 12,558 miles at 63.302 m. p. h. Never has there been such proof of reserve strength, durability and speed.

Because this 1,000 mile performance had not been applied for, previously, as an attempt for a record, it does not stand as an official A.A.A. record, but its time was officially recorded by the A. A. A.

During this, the longest, fastest, and hardest official A. A. A. stock car test ever made, Auburn broke all records for fully equipped certified stock cars from

cially recorded by the A. A. A.

This phenomenal exposition of motor car value was held recently on the Atlantic City Speedway, where Auburn determined to exceed by three times, any previous attempt to test stock car speed and endurance.

To break the official stock car records from 5 to 5,000 miles was not enough for Auburn.

The three Auburn stock cars, two roadsters and one sedan, were scheduled for a day and night grind for 15,000 miles.

From 5 to 5,000 miles 37 stock car official records were broken. But Auburn doubled that distance, and then tripled it. Auburn determined to overwhelmingly exceed the utmost of any previous attainment. From 5,000 to 15,000 miles 34 new records were established with lightning rapidity. New achievements were recorded beyond the extreme limit of all former heights. It is the greatest demonstration of proper engineering, uniform quality in every one of the several thousand parts in a motor car, and the greatest proof of sound value ever furnished the public by any motor car manufacturer.

Your Auburn dealer has exact duplicates of the cars that have set this new standard for the entire industry.

Drive one, and if it does not sell itself, you will not be asked to buy.

1927 FOOT BALL

Cincinnati, O., Sept. 22.—St. Xavier College will open its 1927 football schedule playing Morris Harvey College at Corcoran Field here Saturday, September 24. Head Coach Joe Meyer, has a squad of 50 candidates out for the team.

John Abernethy, of Circleville O., looks to be a promising back-field candidate. He is a junior in the College of Liberal Arts. Abernethy, a track star, has abundant speed that will serve him in good stead in his effort to make a place on the team.

The Musketeers have six inter-sectional games on their schedule. Fifteen letter men are in camp training for the opening battle.

COLOR OF WAR HORSES

If there is another war the color of army horses will be a matter of concern. This is one result of the development of the airplane. Cavalry visible from above must have some protective coloring. Plainly the white horse will not do, nor perhaps the gray the roan or the sorrell, at least without some effective form of camouflage.

It would seem to the layman that a dark chestnut might be the least distinguishable color in the circumstances. But the chestnut is not so common as the black or the bay. Apparently the problem should have serious consideration from the military authorities.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

MAYOR DUVALL

INDIANAPOLIS

FOUND GUILTY

Mayor John L. Duvall of Indianapolis, was found guilty Thursday night by a jury in criminal court of charges of violating the corrupt practices act. The verdict calls for a fine of $1000 and a sentence of 30 days in jail.

The jury was out a little more than three hours, but more than one hour was taken for dinner. It reported to Judge C. C. Shirley.

Under the law Mayor Duvall is ineligible to hold public office for four years from the commission of the crime.

"I have nothing to say" Mayor Duvall said. He was pale when the verdict was read.

The jury's verdict was found to be erroneous in so far as it pertained to Duvall's eligibility to hold public office. It provided that the convicted man should not hold public office from the date of the finding, while the law provides that it shall be from the date of the commission of the crime. The jury corrected the verdict to make the time of ineligibility as from November 2, 1925.

Duvall was released for the night on his own recognizance, with instructions to report to the court Friday morning at 9 o'clock. Judge Shirley declined to say whether he would pronounce sentence.

SOCIAL CALENDAR

Mrs. Lucy Sharp and daughter, Miss Edna, of Johnstown, New York and Mrs. Nellie Johnson, and Mrs. Carl Urton and son, Richard, of Columbus, were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wade Cook, of East Main street, Thursday.

The Zanesville Times Recorder of Wednesday, September 21, carries the following announcement which is of interest to the many friends of Mr. Charles M. Haynes:

"The marriage of Mrs. Bertha Carey, Sunset avenue, and Charles Charles M. Haynes, Chillicothe, will take place at 9 o'clock, Saturday morning, October 1, at Grace Methodist Episcopal church. The service will be read by Dr. James Myron Shimer, pastor of the church. No formal invitations will be issued for the wedding and only a small group of friends will be present.

Mrs. Cary is prominent in social circles in Zanesville and is treasurer of Grace Church Day organization. Mr. Haynes is an optician with an office in Chillicothe.

Following the ceremony, the newly married couple will go to Akron, where they will witness the marriage of Miss Katherine Litchfield and Mr. Howard Hyde. Later, they will enjoy a wedding tour after which they will be at home to their friends at Westbrook, Chillicothe. The principals of this happy affair will have the felicitations of hosts of friends."

Mrs. Franklin Kibler entertained the members of her thimble club at her home in Columbus yesterday. Those present from this city were, Mrs. R. R. Bales, Mrs. S. B. Orr, Mrs. R. F. Lilly, Mrs. G. A. Teegarden, Mrs. H.

W. Plum, Mrs. George S. Corne, Mrs. Harley Colwell, Mrs. D. S. Dunlap, Mrs. O. S. Howard, Mrs. A. L. Wilder, Mrs. W. L. Mack.

Sweets Growing More Popular in America

Washington.—Fathers and mothers seem to be getting more indulgent in the United States, or else the fathers and mothers themselves are consuming more candy, chewing gum and ice cream, because the production of these three children's favorites is setting new altitude records nearly every year. The Commerce department's census of manufactures discloses tremendous increases which small boys will find hard to believe. Comparing 1914 figures with those for 1925, the following was set forth:

The nation now produces $47,838,000 worth of chewing gum, compared with the pre-war figure of $17,000,000, and the product still sells for a nickel a package.

The ice cream bill is $236,175,686 a year, compared with $55,983,133 in 1914.

Candy costs $379,081,411, compared with $153,685,523 in 1914.

This present bill of $700,000,000 or more—about $85 annually per small boy—if small boys got all of it—doesn't represent all the money spent by dad and sister's sheik, either, for these figures are wholesale prices.

Retail prices will boost these three industries into the $1,000,000,000-a-year figure, experts believe.

The increases are variously attributed to prohibition, advertising, increasing export trade, and the attempt of the factories to catch up with the appetites of small boys and high school girls.

They're Not Ferocious

Tiger moths are so called from the beauty of their variegated coloring, says Nature Magazine, and not from any ferocious tendencies. They are contrastedly spotted and branded or pure snow white.
